

Born To Sing

Oooh Yah, Umm
I was just a little girl
Living in my lonely world
When I heard that song
Little girl hold on
My cherie amore

In the kiss of my home
Found a voice to call my own
Just a melody
Set my soul so free
Gave hope back to me

In the darkness of the night
As I held the music tight
I prayed god please
Please god give me just a sign
Tell me when you're gonna shine on me

I was born to sing
I was born to sing
I can feel it in my heart
When my world was torn apart
It's the gift that gave me wings

I saw a dream
Lift the weight off me
With this voice I will survive
It's the reason I'm alive
I'd do anything
I was born to sing

As a woman here I stand
With the dreams here in my hand
That you've given me
And just like before
I'm asking for more

Cuz baby I'm not through
This is what I gotta do
This is what I need
Let the music play
I got more I got to say in me

I was born to sing
I was born to sing
I can feel it in my heart
When my world was torn apart
It's the gift that gave me wings

I saw a dream
Lift the weight off me
With this voice I will survive
It's the reason I'm alive
I was born to sing

Oooh, yeah ...

Oooh, yeah ...

Oooh

You were born to sing
You were born to sing
So just listen to your heart
When your world is torn apart
There's a voice there waiting

I saw a dream
With this gift I will survive
I was born to sing
I was born to sing
I was born to sing
I was born to sing
I was born to sing

Yeah

Ooooh
